The company

Vikan AB

Box 10

SE-515 21 Viskafors

is granted authorization according to Oeko-Tex® Standard 100 to use the Oeko-Tex® mark, based on our test report 09-21247-1 for the following articles:

Textile hygiene products with ultrafine microfibers of polyester and polyamide, ACTEX-fibers and viscose, polyester, polyamide, polypropylene, cotton and their blends

The results of the inspection made according to Oeko-Tex® Standard 100, product class II have shown that the above mentioned goods meet the human-ecological requirements of the standard presently established for products with direct contact to skin.

The certified articles fulfil the requirements of the existing European legislation regarding the use of azo-dyes.

The holder of the certificate, who has issued a conformity declaration according to ISO 17050-1, is under an obligation to use the Oeko-Tex® mark only in conjunction with products that conform with the sample initially tested.

This authorisation is valid until 17.09.2010
